

Halloween Helpers Collecting Used Costumes for Charity

by KYW's Michelle Durham

As Halloween approaches, one young girl from the Main Line is working hard to collect used costumes to donate to charity.

Emma Rose Shapiro, 11, came up with the idea to collect Halloween costumes after a trip to her bedroom closet:

"I realized that my friends and I were lucky enough to get or make a new Halloween costume every year, so my mom and I started to think about what we could do and came up with the idea."

The Halloween Helpers collect gently used costumes for distribution at the Greater Norristown Police Athletic League:

"We would like to have all the costumes by October 8th so we that would give us enough time to clean, bag and tag the costumes for October 19th and 20th."

Those are the dates the costumes will be distributed at the Norristown PAL. To donate a costume or find out more, go to <http://www.thehalloweenhelpers.com>

Posted: Thursday, 17 September 2009 5:44AM